

ESIL Interest Group on International Organizations

International organizations, elites, and masses: perspectives on in/exclusion

Programme | ESIL Annual Conference 2022 | Utrecht

Thursday 1 September 2022

09.30-11.45 (CEST)

Hybrid: In person Janskerkhof 3 (Room 109) and on Zoom

09:30 - 09:40	Welcome
09:40 - 09:55	Wanshu Cong (University of Hong Kong) and André Dao (University of Melbourne): From anti-colonialism to neoliberalism: the communication gap and the Third World
09:55 - 10:10	Julia Emtseva (Max Planck Institute for International Law): Private Elites and International Organizations: Internal Regulations of Public-Private Partnerships at the United Nations
10:10 - 10:25	Katharina Luckner (University of Hamburg): Why the Study of International Law Needs Agent-based Modeling: Assessing Civil Society Influence on International Law
10:25 - 10:40	Melissa J. Durkee (University of Georgia): The logics of inclusion and exclusion in international participatory structures
10:40 - 10:55	Adrien Schifano (Guangdong University of Foreign Studies): Civil Society Participation in Asian International Organizations and the Strengthening of Elites
10:55 - 11:40	Discussion
11:40 - 11:45	Concluding

IG coordinating committee and organisers: Lorenzo Gasbarri, Laura Huici-Sancho, Gail Lythgoe, Negar Mansouri, and Miša Zgonec-Rožej.